

I oppose the monopolization of media outlets. The airwaves, in particular, belong to the American public. Allowing sole "ownership" of media markets stifles the free speech that our democracy depends on.